RALEIGH IN BRIEF.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS IN AND AROUND THE CAPITAL.

Short Items of News Gathered on the Fly by the Chronicle's Reporters. The McNish minstrels will appear here on Monday night, the 15th inst.

There is some talk of reorganizing the Raleigh casino, or something like it.

The hose team of the Victor Fire company (col.) went up to Greensbrro Jesterday afternoon. There are now sixty-three pupils enrolled at the College of Agriculture and the Mechanic Arts. All young Democrats should remember day (tomorrow) night. The nightly services of Central M. E. church are very interesting and are attracting large crowds.

Cotton continues to come in liberally. The store houses are being filled up, and the awful heavy snorts of the cotton compress will soon be heard.

Raleigh has more public and private schools than any city of the same size in the country. Count 'em all up and you'll be surprised, even if you are a Raleighite, Four colored convicts got off the west bound train yesterday, and were hauled out to the penitentiary. Four convicts | Clark. from Anson county were also put in the pen yesterday.

It was suggested yesterday that the handsome iron fence around the capitol ought to be repainted-and that the work ought to be done before the meeting of the next legislature.

The fast freight from the west which usually arrives early in the morning was delayed yesterday for several hours on account of the recent big freight wreck on the Yadkin river bridge near Salisbury.

It is reported that a fast daily train will soon be running between Raleigh visiting Miss Gussie Carroll, returned to and Wilkesboro, It is hoped that there her home in Aberdeen yesterday. is truth in this, as the reality would prove an immense convenience to the public generally.

Something very rich in the way of an entertainmeni is promised by a number of popular young ladies at the residence of R. H. Battle, Esq., tomorrow night. Those who attend will have a welcome and a pleasant time.

Lets have a lot of talk about railroads. Bring on the Albemarle & Raleigh extension; build one from Raleigh to Fayetteville-through the coal and iron section-then Raleigh can have iron furnaces, steel plants, &c.

The Democrats of Wake did a good thing when they nominated John W. Taompson for Clerk of the Superior ing his arrangements to step down and out. - Rockingham Rocket.

The traveller who gets off the train at the union depot here is always struck with the large number of neat-looking hacks and livery teams that meet the trains. As large a number is not seen in any other city of twice Raleigh's size.

The convention of the State Association of Democratic Clubs which meets in this city on September 24th, promises to be one of the best and most active and will have a big time of it.

The Supreme court will convene on the 29th inst. Friday and Saturday the 26th and 27th will be devoted to the examination of applicants for license to Esq., New Berne. practice law. So far only two appli-cants have been registered, but a class of about twenty-five is anticipated.

Everybody whoop up the trades pro-cession. Let's have a big one. If enough of Raleigh's business men shall get interested in the matter, it would probably be a good thing to get a professional float designer and decorator to take charge of it. What say you gentlemen?

The forthcoming number of the Bulletin issued by the Agricultural department will be a valuable document. It will have ten pages, six of which will deal with late statistics. Four pages will show recent crop statistics and two pages will show the statistics of cattle in the State.

Larger and handsomer stocks of goods are being brought into the city by the merchants this fall than ever before in the history of Raleigh. There are some stores here which will equal in elegance and completeness any to be found in the country. Raleigh can supply any kind of a demand and supply it as cheaply and handsomely as any city.

Last spring an effort was made to have Rev. Sam Jones hold a series of meetings here. The effort did not succeed on account of previous engagements the evangelist had made; but the CHRONICLE is under the impression that the preacher said he might be able to come here this fall. Will the effort to get him be renewed?

Raleigh's tobacco market is already good and promises great things. The weed brings higher prices here than on any market in the State. Everybody ought to go to the daily sales and watch "Old Lugs," who walks about nonchalantly and bids on a pile of tobacco in such a keen way that you can neither see nor hear him bid. But he always gets Something new and very pretty appeared on the streets yesterday. It was the handsome delivery wagon of Swin-dell's Big Racket Store. That establishment is full of enterprise, and it just declares that it will make the dry bones of business rattle this fall and open wide the eyes of the public. The new wagon presents a beautiful mingling of black and gold colors in the way of ornament, and is one of the handsomest vehicles on the streets of Raleigh.

Now and then the eye of the reading public falls on a list of the industries and enterprises of which some town boasts. Raleigh is more of a city, has more of the element and advantages of a city than any other place in the State now has or will have within the next ten years. But she has never said much about them. Would it be a good thing for the chamdone, a great many boasting towns would be very much astonished. By some strange cause Raleigh is not known abroad as she should be known.

The Trades Procession.

The CHRONICLE is gratified to see leading business houses awakening to a practical and lively interest in the trades procession for the Fair. In addition to those already reported the following sent in their names yesterday:

MESSRS. W. H. & R. S. TUCKER & Co. S. & D. BERWANGER.

The Messrs. Tucker say that they will "fix their float right;" and that kind of expression from that house means that they will present something superb.

Sam. Berwanger had a merry twinkle in his eye when he told a CHRONICLE man that his "house would have to get up something."

"Something" with the Berwangers means something sure enough. Watch and see if doesn't.

LET WAKE BE REDEEMED.

(Greensboro Patriot.)

Wake county, one of the largest in the State, presents good chances for electing this year a Democratic ticket. The negroes have candidates, which will draw from the white Republicans and make Democratic success a strong prob-Mr. Robt. Southerland is in the city ability. Let Wake county be redeemed, by all means, from its political bondage. We have good chances in every heretofore doubtful county, and all that is necessary is to work.

[If the white men of Raleigh will do their duty, Wake will be redeemed. The eyes of the State are upon us. Raleigh can elect the whole ticket if it will be patriotic. The farmers will do their duty. Only a few days ago we heard a prominent Democrat in an adjoining county seriously advocate putting Wake in the Black Congressional district. He said: "Wake has a white majority, and if the business and professional men, mechanics and clerks, and all other white men in Raleigh worked as hard as they did in Durham, in Alamance, in Franklin and other counties Wake would be Democratic. "We shut our stores," he continued, "pay our money and work with all our might-and all of us work. In Raleigh, the work falls on the shoulders of a few, and the Republicans carry the city BECAUSE OF THE INDIFFERENCE OF THE THE PEOPLE OF RAL-EIGH WHO REAP MORE BENEFIT FROM DEM-OCRATIC SUCCESS THAN THE PEOPLE OF ANY TOWN IN THE STATE. Let Raleigh and Wake do its duty, or let the county be put into the negro district along with the Republican counties."

This gentleman has large political influence and experience. We give his views to the people of Raleigh to show them what Democrats in other places are thinking about. It would be a very great blow to us here in Wake to be put we fail to send Democrats to the Legis-

"Some Practical Benefits of Life Insurance."

Mr. Rufus M. Cross, of Sanford, N. C., insured his life in the Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Company of Newark, N. J., on the 25th day of last April. He had never made but one semi annual payment of $23.88 on the policy. His administrator, Mr. John W. Cross of this city was, on yesterday, handed a check for the amount of the policy, by Mr. John C. Drewry, the State Agent for this reliable old company.

We all remember the lively and interesting campaign of 1888 - how the Democratic clubs all over the State adopted the white beaver as an insignia, and how those white beavers were entusiastically worn and waved at all public speakings and assemblies, and how instrumental they were in forming the best organizapose of issuing tickets to new pupils for in North Carolina. Now let all the clubs tion of the Demecratic party ever known adopt it again. Nothing helps so much as enthusiasm. Messrs.
